

FINAL JUDGMENT

Every man is and will be judged according to his own behavior. God who probes every human heart can only know how to judge. Wherever we go or will be, He can reach us, for he is within each one of us. The idea of final judgment is something that frightens all human beings. Today, however, there are other things to put before this thought and the creatures pass by, prefer to think of other things and enjoy the things of the world. But it is precisely the things of the world that will make the final judgment for every man absolutely more severe. Today man is bound to the power of the flesh and becomes immoral, even if I God gave it a «temple of the Holy Spirit» body, so that it could use it for the glory of God and not for sin. But how many sins are the cause of sexuality, the most blasphemous! Corruption has overcome every barrier of the human mind and as a denigration of feelings, of that feeling, love, which I have put in the heart of every man! With the term of love now the most unthinkable, the most more inaccessible and rude things. I, who am in every man and know the depths of hearts, see that hearts without God, without the search for God, can come to any inhumanity and immorality. The sins of the flesh are the most disconcerting, for they drown the spirit, that spirit which I God have put in each one of you and gives serenity to all being. To kill the spirit, it means to silence him from any other choice. Why does this happen? Because the discontent of man today has bordered on such a limit as to choose the flesh as only distraction from any other commitment. Unheard things happen in all environments and no one tries to make reasoning his spirit. It puts everything before it. I, God how many people I called in the depths of their hearts, but they even realizing that I could be I to speak, they pushed back me and continued on their way. There are also so many other sins of immorality: dishonesty and all that other vile man can commit. My mercy wants you all to be saved, but this depends on every man. Together with my Mother we are gathering men from all over the earth. There are many calls: with illness; with the death of loved ones, with everything else that can make every creature reflect. Submit yourselves to the important things, those of heaven that can help men to recover. Who prays more for this? Who wants to restore himself to new life thinking about what might be the divine judgment? Things on earth take too long, there's no time for anything else. That is why your God allows every test, because suffering recovers some, conducts others to the reason and above all purifies.
