

I LOOK FOR WORSHIPPERS IN SPIRIT AND TRUTH¹

And you must be the first. Today statues, material things are worshipped, but you have not yet worshipped your God as he deserves! There will come times when all will kneel conscious, aware of lost time, but for some, many, it will be too late. They worshipped themselves idols that made them feel like someone and forgot of Me. But suffering will remind them that without Me, nothing can be done, nothing is worth, nothing makes sense. "Pause". Adore me and listen to me! Don't ask yourself why all the things, just trust me, is the greatest joy you can give to my outraged Heart. Stop! Worship me and listen to me! To adore myself in spirit and truth means to be loyal to oneself and to one's neighbor. There you will find God. Say, report all these things that I put in your heart, because until man isn't knelt in front of Me God and will not have loved his neighbor as I loved you, it will not begin that path that I demand from him. How many illnesses, how many inconveniences due to these failings, how many spiritual intoxications. It heal itself the body, it make huge sacrifices for the body and of the soul few heal themselves. I ask you to return to Me all you with sincere spirit. I will provide everything you need. I will cure and heal your illnesses and you will have everything you need. Fear nothing with Me. Fatigue comes when I am not there. With Me everything becomes light, even the heaviest yoke and then if you ask me I can take it off. Stay close to me, I am God, everything is possible to Me, nothing is impossible.
