

The Eucharist – the sacrament

Your heart must transcend and penetrate the love between Father and Son. That is love for the Eucharist, in the Eucharist. This blessed Blood which I have shed for you transmits into you, vivifies you, solicits you to love Me and the brothers. Only in purity can I make you understand these things, otherwise you would not understand me. Now you know, why in part this past and present suffering. But how many sins against the Eucharist! That's why so much evil in the world. The man did not understand anything of this my "memory", he forgot, he has neglected it and hence sin in the world has proliferated more and more. Reread and understand these concepts well, report and teach. And when you receive Me think about what I have told you here. Always invite my Mother to receive me with you. I want to join you firmly and give you all the inspirations of my heart. My Heart rejoices and rejoices when a creature is before my Holy Body. That piece of bread emanates such a force, such a grace that, if you were aware of it, you would spend so much time before Me. But the world has not understood the meaning of what I have instituted and has never given it the importance it deserves. Ah! if the man would kneel before this Eucharist with more ardor than he does! Oh if so many men who have not done so they would do it! Prostrate yourselves more frequently to it and invite other brothers of yours. If you did, you would see how much joy in your heart and in that of others. Do you not realize, are you not aware that I, God, in that Host concentrate that love which the Father transmits to me and which I transmit to Him? But you who have tried and know what it means to adore me, because then you see its fruits, invite your brothers with you in front of Me, so that they too may taste what their God wants to give them and make them feel! Of course it will not be easy to convince them the first times, but I will make them feel things so amazing, so to realize that it is worth it and you will find that without saying they will come alone in front Me! That piece of bread broken and then exposed will be, is a sign of great strength, of great power! That strength and power that depart from the Heart of God! Yes, because that love which the Father transmits to me and which I transmit to him is not restrained in this cradle of love, but is expanded to all men who have been created out of love. Ah! Days will come when men for their atrocious suffering will understand this, but not out of initial conviction, but because they will have to find a solution to their suffering and try to worship me, they will realize it, that it will be a very effective medicine for their souls. The "fire" which will be in them will be so burning, that only the Eucharist and adoration of the Eucharist will appease their suffering of purification. I make this recommendation again: adore me as much as you can and you can! Do it with all your heart, with all the love you are capable of! Invoke my Holy Spirit and listen to me! I will always speak to your heart.
