

TO UNITE YOUR SUFFERINGS TO THE SUFFERINGS OF JESUS

God, sons, knows everything, knows everything about you and you have to submit to Him and put to the father's will. Be calm, Jesus likes your offers, He appreciates your sufferings and He hands them to his Father, because everything turns into Jesus for you and for all the brothers that you will meet. If you don't suffer – offer, hasn't yet arrived for you maturity to become elect persons, favorite. In particular, I ask you to pray a lot for those who are not believers and because they are very obstinate in their pride and God cannot force their liberty indeed their pride, because they feel God of themselves. They are in their spiritual discomfort terribly tied to their sin, that they don't recognize and the devil enmeshes them, making the rest. In particular which is the aspect on which they insist? On the not-existence of God and their desire to enjoy the pleasures of the world. The one confirm the other and vice versa:

- In fact, if there is no God does not make sense to have no material pleasure;
- I have material pleasure because God doesn't exist and I have to enjoy the pleasures of the world.

The obstinacy, it is just a feeling that worsens own state and doesn't contribute to your own spirit. If they don't have who prays for them, they cannot save themselves. Prayer and offer may come to their hearts, unlike anything else you can do, that's because I ask you to pray a lot for them and offer your sufferings. Besides, through the constant prayer the grace of God that will go down through on you the Holy Trinity and will help get the peace to the men that look for in vain in the world, but they won't find if not in God.
